

PRIVACY STATEMENT

based on Articles 13 and 14 of the EU's General Data Protection Regulation ("GDPR")

Drinks Logistics Partner AB ("DLP") is committed to ensure the security and confidentiality of personal data it processes. This Privacy Statement describes how DLP collects, processes, stores and secures personal data concerning its customers and partners in cooperation.

1. CONTROLLER	Drinks Logistics Partner AB Dåntorpsvägen 32, 136 50 Jordbro + 46 (0)8 504 107 00 firstname.lastname@dlp.se
2. REPRESENTATIVE OF THE CONTROLLER	In case you have any questions regarding the processing of your personal data, you can contact the following representative of the controller: Jimmy Isaksson +46 (0)8 504 107 09 jimmy.isaksson@dlp.se
3. CATEGORIES OF PERSONAL DATA	Personal data collected include an individual's contact information such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Name - E-mail address - Postal address - Phone number - Invoicing information. Due to safety reasons, DLP has video surveillance systems installed in its premises that record data, when a person visits the company.
4. PURPOSES AND LEGAL GROUNDS FOR PROCESSING OF PERSONAL DATA	DLP processes personal data for the purposes of contacting and maintaining our customer relations, and to comply with our contractual and legal obligations. Providing offers to customers, performance and management of contracts and completing other tasks based on contractual obligations, require the collection and processing of personal data. Personal data are processed for the purposes of handling, invoicing, storing and delivering customers' orders and to otherwise perform our customer contracts.

	Fulfilment of certain requirements and obligations stated in laws, such as the bookkeeping regulations, require the processing of personal data. Personal data may also be processed for marketing purposes due to DLP's legitimate interests. DLP may in some situations process personal data on the grounds of your consent. In that case, you will receive information concerning the particular processing activities. You have always a right to withdraw the given consent afterwards.
5. SOURCES OF PERSONAL DATA THAT ARE BEING PROCESSED	DLP obtains personal data directly from the person him/herself or through DLP's regular business activities, for example from an individual's employer during a customer relation. Personal data may also be collected and updated from public registers such as the Trade Register. DLP aims at ensuring the accuracy of the received information and updating the personal data stored in its registers.
6. DISCLOSURE OF PERSONAL DATA	Personal data may be disclosed to other group companies and public authorities. DLP may have, due to internal administrative purposes, legitimate interest to transfer personal data within the group. DLP is obligated to disclose personal data to public authorities in cases, where the legislation so requires. In case we use external subcontractors or service providers and disclose personal data to them for the purposes described above, we make sure, and obligate them if needed, with appropriate contractual arrangements, to ensure an adequate level of data protection and security for the safety of the disclosed personal data, and to comply with the relevant data protection legislation. Personal data may also be disclosed in relation to a potential sale of business, and in relation to a merger or acquisition, to a buyer or other relevant party of the transaction. DLP does not disclose personal data outside the European Economic Area.

7. SECURITY OF PERSONAL DATA	Securing personal data is an important aspect of DLP's business. DLP has ensured an appropriate level of personal data security and confidentiality by technical and organizational measures. By these measures, DLP secures the personal data it processes from disappearance, misuse, unauthorized access and from alteration, unlawful disclosure and destruction.
8. STORAGE OF PERSONAL DATA	Personal data are stored as long as needed for the purposes for which the data were collected and processed, or required by the legislation. Personal data that are processed on the grounds of the performance of a contract are stored the same period as the contract itself is in force, and after that 6 years in order to defend against reclamations and claims. In case the processing of personal data is based on a compliance with a legal obligation, the storing of personal data follows the regulations stated in laws, for example, personal data related to bookkeeping materials are stored up to 10 years.
9. RIGHTS OF DATA SUBJECTS	Data subject has the following rights in respect of his/her personal data that are kept by DLP: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Right to request access to personal data: A person has a right to request access to personal data concerning him/her that are stored in DLP's customer register. - Right to request correction of incorrect data: A person has a right to request DLP to rectify an incorrect or incomplete data concerning him/her. - Right to request erasure of personal data: A person has a right to request erasure of his/her personal data. In case there exists a legitimate ground to process personal data, DLP is not obligated to erase the data. - Right to request limitation of processing of personal data: A person has a right to restrict the processing of personal data concerning him/her. DLP may have, however, a legitimate ground to process the data, in which case the person's right to restrict the processing concerns only the storage of personal data. - Right to object: A person has a right to object the processing of his/her personal data for direct marketing purposes.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Data portability: A person has a right to receive personal data that he/she has provided to DLP in a machine-readable format. Personal data can also be transferred to another controller, where it is secure and technically feasible.- Right to lodge a complaint to the data protection authority: A person has a right to contact and lodge a complaint to the Integritetsskyddsmyndigheten (imy.se), where DLP has breached the data protection legislation while processing personal data.
10. CHANGES TO THIS PRIVACY STATEMENT	DLP aims to improve its services and operations constantly, which is why it reserves a right to make changes to this Privacy Statement. Updated version of our Privacy Statement is always available on DLP's website, www.dlp.se